

I very strongly support access to video messaging for video relay services. Hearing callers get voice mail, therefore deaf callers should get video messaging in the interest of equality for all people.